

TUESDAY NOONTIME SERIES

Downsizing & Decluttering

Having too much stuff can impede people from relocating or getting health care into their homes. This fun interactive presentation explores why stuff is so important for some people and teaches practical, easy-to-follow tips on downsizing and decluttering. Cleaning out your house while you can is a gift and inheritance you can leave your children. Learn how to get started.

Presenter:

David Hunt
AARP Volunteer

Mr. David H. Hunt was a special education teacher for 16 years teaching in Buffalo, New York, Beckley, West Virginia and Richmond, Virginia. He then became a school administrator for another 15 years and retired in 2017 as a Regional Principal for the Virginia Department of Corrections. He regards himself as a life-long learner whose hobby is magic. Mr. Hunt enjoys sharing the knowledge gathered by the AARP and sprinkling his live presentations with a little magic and humor.

David is a popular presenter and has done programs with Aging Together before.
