

TUESDAY NOONTIME SERIES

HOMEFIT WORKSHOP

The AARP HomeFit Workshop provides information to participants on how to decide what type of home modifications are needed to stay in their home as they age. It also provides ideas and inspiration on making those modifications. The goal of the presentation is to educate participants on home updates that can make it easier for them to go about their daily activities while staying comfortable, independent, and injury-free in their home.

Presenter:

Mike D'Ostilio
AARP Volunteer

Mike Ostilio retired from the U.S Army in 1996 and from the Federal Government in 2015 where he served as the Chief of Investigations, Assistance, and Hot Line Branch for the Army Inspector General Agency. He began working with AARP as a legislative volunteer in 2016. Mike has participated both at the state and federal level talking with legislative officials on healthcare and caregiving initiatives affecting seniors. He is also a member of the AARP Virginia Speakers Bureau and has presented such topics as Brain Health, Home Fit, Downsizing, and Making Chapters More Effective. In 2017, Mike was presented with the AARP Virginia Rookie of the Year Award.

Mike also is a volunteer with the National Park Service and works at the Fredericksburg Battlefield and Chatham Manor. Additionally, Mike and his wife, Marietta, are Senior Visitor volunteers.
